Re: United States v. Epstein, Case No. 19-Cr-490

Dear Judge Berman:

On behalf of MSW Media, Inc. ("MSW Media"), I respectfully submit this letter motion to intervene in the above-captioned case for the purposes of partially supporting and partially opposing the Government's motion to unseal the transcripts of grand jury testimony in this case, filed as Docket No. 61.

MSW Media (<https://mswmedia.com/>) operates numerous podcasts and blogs about federal government operations, including Mueller She Wrote, SpyTalk, Daily Beans, and Jack. It clearly qualifies as a representative of the news media.

MSW Media has standing to intervene in this case for the following reason. On 17 July 2025, after President Donald Trump publicly instructed Attorney General Pam Bondi to seek the Court's permission to release "any and all pertinent Grand Jury testimony, we filed a Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") request with the Department of Justice ("DOJ") for transcripts of all grand jury testimony from this case and United States v. Maxwell, No. 20-330 (S.D.N.Y.). We are concerned with the modifier "pertinent" in President Trump's instruction, and that concern seemed vindicated when the Government advised this Court that it intended to "make appropriate redactions of victim-related information and other personal identifying information prior to releasing the transcripts." (Dkt. #61 at 2 (emphasis added).)

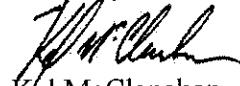

To be clear, we have no interest in victim-related information, and this Motion does not pertain to that information. However, we do have concerns that the Government seems to be implicitly seeking this Court's permission to withhold other personally identifiable information, such as information about the former defendant's partners in crime or clients. Accordingly, while we join the Government in requesting that these transcripts be released, we accordingly make this narrow independent request to the Court: Please do not weigh in on the appropriateness of withholding personally identifiable information unrelated to victims. We intend to litigate this FOIA request if necessary, and the question of whether such information may be properly withheld is a question best left to the court adjudicating that future case. We are concerned that, if this Court explicitly or implicitly blesses the Government's proposed redactions of non-victim-related personally identifiable information (even in passing), that opinion will be treated as a proverbial thumb on the scale in our FOIA case without materially affecting the Court's decision in this case.

In other words, if this Court mentions in its decision that it was swayed at all by the Government's promise to redact personally identifiable information, we are concerned that the Government will then argue in its FOIA case that "Judge Berman agreed that this information should not be publicly disclosed." Therefore, we respectfully request that this Court not take the Government's statements regarding non-victim-related personally identifiable information into account when reaching its decision regarding the Government's motion, and we further request that the Court specify that it is not opining on that question, should it grant the Government's motion.

The Government takes no position on the intervention of MSW Media. I did not consult with a representative for the former defendant.

Sincerely,
